

Hexapod (TUDelft)

Testing materials

- The Hexapod is a multiaxial loading test machine, it can apply realistic complex loading up to 100 tones capable of speeding up experimental fatigue life time assessment with a frequency up to 30 Hz;
- This allows for more reliable lifetime prediction of Ship & Offshore structural details under complex loads